PARENT ACADEMY

Academy School District 20

Academy District 20 provides free workshops for parents, families and caregivers so they can stay informed about timely and relevant issues facing families and schools.

Please join us for our spring semester offerings!

Social Media and its Effects on the Developing Brain—6 p.m. | Feb. 13

How social media affects children's developing brains and what parents can do about it.

Coding & Cybersecurity Information Sessions | Mar. 5, Mar. 8

Information about a two year course sequence in Coding or Cybersecurity that fuses relevant and real-world curriculum. Students may have the opportunity to earn college credit, enroll in coordinating math and English core classes, earn industry certifications, and participate in enrichment activities. Aimed at incoming 11th and 12th graders.

If You Can Name It, You Can Tame It | Mar. 13

This session will provide information on tips and tools to stay out of the storm and help our children learn to communicate more respectfully and effectively.

*All sessions, unless otherwise noted, are held at 6:30 p.m. at the D20 Education & Administration Center (EAC), 1110 Chapel Hills Drive.
Sessions may be cancelled if minimum registrations are not met.*
